

Compliance 201 For Health Care Providers Resources

- OIG's Compliance Resources Portal: This compliance resource portal includes educational materials such as compliance toolkits, videos, podcasts, and advisory opinions.
- OIG's Compliance Program Basics Video: This video covers much of the same content as this training as well as what makes a compliance program effective.
- OIG's Tips for Implementing an Effective Compliance Program Video: This video details specific steps to ensure your compliance program is effective, including fostering a culture of compliance in your organization and offering compliance trainings for staff.
- OIG negotiated Corporate Integrity Agreements \(CIAs\): This is a current list of CIAs with health care providers, entered into as part of their settlement of Federal health care program investigations. These CIAs typically have common elements, addressed in this training, including requirements to hire a compliance officer, develop written policies, implement training programs, and conduct internal reviews. As of the publication of this training program, the list of CIAs includes a Voluntary Tribal Compliance Agreement.
