SUMMARY

Summary: This position is located in the Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General, Office of Counsel to the Inspector General.

THIS JOB IS OPEN TO:

Hiring Paths: Current HHS OIG employees only

DUTIES:

The Administrative and Civil Remedies Branch (ACRB) represents OIG in civil fraud enforcement actions, negotiates and monitors integrity agreements, defends the Inspector General in administrative appeals of exclusions, pursues administrative penalties and exclusion in certain fraud cases, resolves self-disclosure matters, provides legal advice on exclusions, and analyzes FOIA requests for ACRB files. Specifically, ACRB attorneys work with the Department of Justice to develop and pursue False Claims Act cases against individuals and entities that defraud HHS programs. ACRB staff also negotiate and monitor integrity agreements that impose integrity obligations on parties alleged to have engaged in fraudulent conduct. ACRB staff also pursue civil monetary penalties law cases related to the employment of excluded individuals, EMTALA violations, select agents, and misuse of HHS seals and symbols.

A Deputy Branch Chief of ACRB supervises a team of attorneys and professional staff ranging from GS-11 to GS-15. Teams are typically made up of 7-9 individuals. The Deputy Branch Chief supervises ACRB’s representation of HHS in civil and certain administrative health care fraud case cases, the application of OIG’s Health Care Fraud, Grant Fraud, and Contract Fraud Self-Disclosure Protocols, integrity agreements and compliance monitoring, legal issues related to program exclusions, application of FOIA, litigation issues, and compliance with office policies related to speeches, telework, and other human resource topics. The Deputy Branch Chief works collaboratively on the ACRB management team to develop office policy related to ACRB’s work. The Deputy Branch Chief is responsible for performance management for direct reports and special projects as assigned. The Deputy Branch Chief coordinates extensively with the ACRB Branch Chief and other branch management to develop OCIG-wide policy, briefs the OIG Immediate Office about ACRB-related issues when appropriate, and reports results to OCIG, OIG, and HHS leadership. This Deputy Branch Chief position will be focused on compliance monitoring, exclusions, and ACRB general work as described above.
REQUIREMENTS

Conditions Of Employment:

- U.S Citizenship is required.
- Registration with the Selective Service (if applicable).
