

HHS Office of Inspector General

Unaccompanied Alien Children (UAC) National Review

January 2019

Video interviews with HHS-OIG subject matter experts (SMEs).

Total run time: 16:37

Ann Maxwell – Assistant Inspector General for Evaluation and Inspections

1. Can you describe the work that HHS-OIG has been doing on the UAC program? (0:05 – 2:00)
2. What is most important for people to know about HHS-OIG's work on unaccompanied children? (2:01 – 2:50)
3. What is the key takeaway from this report? (2:51 – 3:47)
4. Are you collaborating with federal partners on the reviews and HHS-OIG's other UAC work? (3:48 – 4:24)
5. What is the goal of this report? (4:25 – 5:01)
6. What can stakeholders (such as Congress and the public) expect to learn from the HHS-OIG about the UAC program over the next several months? (5:02 – 5:39)

Elton Malone – Special Agent in Charge, Office of Investigations

1. What is HHS-OIG's role/authority? (5:45 – 6:04)
2. What is HHS-OIG's jurisdiction for the UAC program? (6:05 – 6:44)
3. Explain the abuse allegations in the Pacheco Case (6:45 – 9:18)
4. What distinguishes the UAC investigations from other investigations? (9:19 – 10:25)

Christi Grimm – Chief of Staff

1. What is the HHS-OIG's role/authority regarding the UAC program? (10:33 – 10:56)
2. What has the HHS-OIG done so far in its oversight of the UAC program? (10:57 – 12:04)
3. Why is this work important? (12:05 – 12:52)
4. How are these reviews different from the HHS-OIG's previous reviews? (12:53 – 14:18)
5. A significant amount of HHS-OIG's resources are being used to do these reviews. Why is this necessary? (14:19 – 14:39)

Amy Frontz – Assistant Inspector General for Audit Services

1. What is the focus of the work done by HHS-OIG's Office of Audit Services? (14:43 – 15:16)
2. What is HHS-OIG's Office of Audit Services seeking to accomplish? (15:17 – 15:54)
3. Who is served by HHS-OIG reviews/reports? (15:55 – 16:37)

Point of contact: media@oig.hhs.gov