

---

Juliet T. Hodgkins

Acting Chief of Staff
Office of Inspector General
Department of Health and Human Services

Juliet Hodgkins has served as the Acting Chief of Staff at the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Office of Inspector General (OIG) since January 2020 and prior to that as the Deputy Chief of Staff since April 2019. In those roles, she guides the development of policies and decisions and ensures effective outreach and communication strategies that are integral to OIG's operations. Ms. Hodgkins oversees OIG's Office of Congressional Affairs, the Office of Communications, and the Office of Operations within the Immediate Office. She provides critical direction to these offices, as they work closely with internal and external stakeholders to maximize the impact of OIG's extensive work portfolio.

Ms. Hodgkins joined HHS OIG in 2011. Before becoming Deputy Chief of Staff, she served as the Advice Branch Chief and Senior Counsel in the Office of Counsel to the Inspector General. She oversaw a team that provided legal advice to OIG on audits, investigations, evaluations, and OIG operations.

Ms. Hodgkins has been in public service for nearly 20 years, working for both State and Federal governments. Prior to joining the HHS OIG, Ms. Hodgkins was the Counsel to the Inspector General at the U.S. Election Assistance Commission, the General Counsel to the Election Assistance Commission, and the General Counsel to the Louisiana Department of Elections and Registration. Prior to entering public service, Ms. Hodgkins was in the private practice of law representing management interests in labor and employment litigation. Ms. Hodgkins received a Juris Doctor degree and Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from Louisiana State University.

(Updated September 2020)

